

Christian College Notes.

(ADV.)

—Mr. Horstman, of Lexington, an excellent piano tuner, came over last week and overhauled all of the instruments in the college, and left them in first class condition. He also tuned a number of pianos in the neighborhood.

—Mrs. M. G. Thomson spent from Friday until Monday with relatives in Harrodsburg. Misses Dollie Whipp, Amanda Stone, and Dollie Cowden were at home in Liberty from Friday till Monday. Miss Kate Moore, of Garrard Co., spent a few days at home last week.

—Patrons of Christian College will bear in mind that no deduction will be made for pupils quitting school before the term closes, unless on account of sickness, protracted through three weeks or more. All accounts will be reckoned from time the pupil enters until close of term.

—The teachers for Christian College have all been employed for the next school year; and, in accordance with our policy, as few changes have been made as possible. The faculty will remain the same as the present year with the exception of one change. In securing the faculty, we have not acted on letters of recommendation; but have acted on our own personal knowledge of the merits and efficiency of each member. The faculty is just what we desire, thoroughly qualified, with long experience in teaching.

—The botany and geology classes made an excursion to the knobs and to Gordon's Lick on last Friday afternoon, chaperoned by Miss Mary Thomson. Many flowers and some interesting specimens were collected. Gordon's Lick is one of the many monuments in the section of Geological phenomena; some interesting theories are suggested, as to its origin. Mountains, hills, valleys, rivers, &c., are all pictures in nature's school-room, and they can not be gazed upon too often or too intently by the young, as the mind is being unfolded.

—The principal is in daily receipt of letters from teachers, desiring positions; this has gotten to be almost a crusade. Through courtesy, if not as a matter of business, each of these letters must be answered, and it draws heavily on the time of one, who is already overburdened with work. We presume that most of these letters come through, or by the advice of teachers' agencies. While we are in full sympathy with the teachers, and, while we do not condemn agencies of this kind, we do feel that the system might be so improved as to let the position seek the teacher at least this far, that the vacancy shall have been made public.

—The principal is being urged by a few teachers to conduct a school for teachers through six weeks, beginning on June 11th, a few days after the regular term closes. He now has this under consideration; and, if he feels assured that he can secure as many as 40 teachers he will probably decide to open the school. The terms will be very low. A school of this kind will be of inestimable value to any and every teacher of public schools; the course will embrace all branches taught in public schools, and methods will receive especial attention. Any teacher, desiring to attend a school of this kind, will do well to write to the principal of Christian College.

—The teachers' course will close in four weeks. The class has made good progress, and the teachers must all feel greatly benefited. We are not normal in our views but advocate a practical course, in which principles are well defined and thoroughly instilled into the minds of pupils. The normal theory, in our minds, is like building a house by putting on the roof first, then framing it, and at some future time, possibly, laying the foundation. If this opportunity never presents itself, then the superstructure is permitted to stand without a foundation. This might be termed "Teachers Dwelling in Air-Castles."

—A dispatch from Frankfort says that Madeline Pollard has not visited her mother for eight years and that the old lady was in total ignorance of her manner of living, she having left the impression upon her that she was engaged in literary work. When Mrs. Pollard read of Madeline's suit she is said to have fainted and immediately upon her recovery wrote her erring daughter who had so deceived her that she must never put her foot in her mother's house.

—Every time Commissioner Lochren drops a fraudulent pensioner the patriotic pension sharks are as indignant as if every honest man on the rolls were being robbed of his rights. But fortunately it is a great deal cheaper to have any amount of such indignation than it is to go on paying from $30,000,000 to $60,000,000 a year for fostering fraud.—N. Y. World.

—A general rain in California has improved the outlook for a good harvest of grain and fruit.

Dr. S. F. Scott, of Blue Ridge, Harrison county, Mo., says, "For whooping cough, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 25c and 50c bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Willie Brown was rejoicing over his 10-lb. baby boy Friday and declares that it is a democrat, while its grandpa, Reid Farman, says it is not.

—Last Friday the Pittsburgh nine tackled a London nine and as usual were defeated. The whitewashing that was done on each side was or wasn't a credit to either or neither.

—Town Marshal Henry P. Brown arrested A. Y. Stringer, Friday, who was terrorizing a portion of the town with a loaded Winchester. Five dollars and costs was the verdict of Judge Canifax.

—Owing to the decrease in business, arrangements will be made in a few days by which the local freight train will go south one day and back the next, instead of one train north and one south daily, as now.

—Saturday evening a little son of W. H. May, who lives a few miles east of London, cut his brother's arm accidentally but seriously, the tendons of the arm being severed. Dr. Caldwell attended the little fellow and reports him doing well.

—A proposition by prominent men has been laid before the town board, in which they say they will erect a street car line in the city of London if they are given the right of way for 12 years. They shall certainly be granted the opportunity. Wont little towns like Stanford look on us with envy?

—Friday night Matt Watkins, a prominent young merchant of our town, and Miss Lucy Eversole, daughter of Hon. H. C. Eversole, eloped to Jellico and were married. Mrs. Watkins is only about sixteen, and if the old folks had known it, the happy couple wouldn't have had to go so far.

—In the Swiss Colony at the Hotel Bernstadt Saturday, Bud Streuge shot Wm. Patterson, who may be possibly be fatally wounded. The ball struck Patterson over the right eyebrow and came out near the temple. In this case it is well known what and "who struck Billy Patterson." No arrest.

—Saturday about 2 o'clock Eb Moran, son and deputy under Sheriff James W. Moran, arrested a negro named John Ely at the depot on the charge of burglary. He was assisted by Deputy Sheriff S. W. Warnack, and they took from him a pistol and a gold ring that he had stolen from the house of George Bendel, two miles south of London. On the way to jail the negro attempted to get away and ran three squares, when Moran fired at him, the ball striking him in the back, paralyzing him and from the effects of which the negro will die. He was taken to the court-house and searched and on his person was found a razor, a large barlow and a gold watch that belonged to Geo. Bendel. At the depot where he was arrested was also a side of meat taken from Bendel's house. Mr. Bendel was out in a field at work and the man had broken in at a window. No arrests.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—J. W. James has re-opened his quart house here in town, so it is said.

—Very little corn has been planted, as it continues to rain, but our farmers are ready for it when dry enough.

—Major Foley had two valuable horses killed by lightning during the hard storm Thursday evening. The cloud came up very suddenly and was almost in the nature of a cyclone; hail fell and a most terrific rain.

—There will be a protracted meeting at the Christian church sometime this Spring, but a young lady suggested that we must not inform the ministers that but few chickens have been hatched, or there will be a poor chance for the meeting.

—Arch McKinney, Jr., is visiting Burch Buchanan. Mrs. J. H. Stephens is some better, being able to sit up. Mrs. W. T. Stephens has returned from the W. C. T. U's convention at Kirksville, and reports a good meeting and much work accomplished.

—Mrs. Dr. Cooper and children, of Livingston, visited Mr. Charles Redd last week. Messrs. James F. Holdam and George Lee James have opened out a nice line of groceries, dry goods, &c., in the room formerly occupied by D. G. Slaughter, and have a good trade, for Mr. Holdam is widely known as a business man, has a great many friends and treats them right.

—Another Christian has entered the pearly gates and is enjoying sweet rest. Mrs. Jennie Burch, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henley Hutchinson, died April 15, 1894, from the effects of child birth. She was attended by Drs. Doores, Pettus and Edmiston, and all that could be done was of no avail. Loving and devoted friends surrounded her bed and a devoted mother and father and fond husband, sister and brothers are bowed down with a terrible grief. Mrs. Burch was a member of the Christian church here and her place will be hard to fill. She was a noble, ambitious woman, perfectly devoted to her family and friends, very charitable, and the large crowd that assembled at the grave was sufficient testimony of her worth. May a just God temper this blow to husband, father, mother, sisters and brothers and teach them that this life is not all they have to live.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Surveyor Will Wallace is making a new map and survey of the town.

—The regular term of the police court will begin Monday and a large number of civil suits are on the docket.

—The bicycle craze has struck the town. There are now 20 machines here and several more have been ordered.

—The entertainment given at the court-house Friday evening by Miss Ethel Street, teacher of elocution, and the young ladies of Kirksville college was enjoyed by a large audience.

—Scott Heywood, whose company appeared here a short time since, said that the Royce Swiss bell ringers was the best troupe of entertainers on the road this season. The Royce company has been engaged by the Lancaster board to appear at the court-house Thursday night. Reserved seats are on sale at Stormes' drug store and are going like hot cakes.

—It has been intimated by the L. & N. R. R. people that they will abolish the Western Union telegraph office at this place the first of the month "in order to reduce expenses." To abolish the office would be a pretty shabby transaction as a large sum was made up by citizens and given the company to put it here. Should the report prove true, the citizens will try and get an office "up town."

—Marshal Arnold lifted up Battle Row by the tail Saturday. The following parties, all negroes, were brought before Police Judge Hemphill charged with selling whisky: Ellen Evans, two cases; Laura Brown, two cases; Tom Hickman, five cases; Charley Anderson, one case. Each fined $50 in each case. Anderson Leavell two cases and Joe Claybourn one case were fined $25 each. None were able to pay or replevy the fines and they will have to work it out on the rock pile.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The revival held at the Lebanon Baptist church by Rev. J. O. Rust closed with 50 professions of religion.

—E. J. G. Livingston will preach at Procherville next Sunday at 11 a. m. and at night, and requests a full attendance of the membership.

—Bro. Peck, of the Falmouth Democrat, seems to have gotten religion during the recent union meeting in his town. He now devotes a column or more to church matters.

—At the recent anniversary of the Presbyterian Church Extension Society it was reported that since the society began its work in 1864 it has helped to build 9,300 churches, worth upon an average $2,000, thus creating church property worth $18,600,000.

—The congregational meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday voted unanimously to call Rev. S. M. Logan, son of Dr. J. V. Logan, of Richmond, to be their pastor. A committee, consisting of the elders and deacons of the church, was appointed to see how much salary they could offer, and confer with Mr. Logan.

—The Baptist meeting closed Friday and for the first time in many moons, no "big meeting" is being held here by the white folks. It is said, however, that in Maxwell, our colored suburb, meetings that began "enduring" the war are still in progress and for sometime it has looked like their white brethren were determined to steal away their laurels in keeping up the racket.

—The appointment by Gov. Northern, of Georgia, of a Roman Catholic to be U. S. Senator, threatens to precipitate a large sized row in the Southern Baptist Convention. Gov. Northern is vice-president of the convention and the Baptist Standard says: Gov. Northern has not only proved disloyal to the Church of Jesus Christ, but to American institutions as well. He has trodden the white banner we have unfurled in dirt and mud, and cast a reproach upon our whole people, that the corroding touch of time will not serve to efface.

—The child murdered at Nicholasville turns out to be that of Miss Gaskins, of Pulaski, and J. Cam Williams, of Somerset. The girl had gone to the negro's house to be confined and Nancy Jane Richardson took the child when it was born, at 4 o'clock Friday morning, the 13th inst., and in the presence of Gaskins' wife smothered it in a feather bed. Williams and the negro woman have been arrested. The girl has not been found.

—The last day of the Confederate veteran's reunion at Birmingham was spent in the election of officers, speech-making and laying the corner stone of Birmingham's monument to the Confederate dead. Gen. John B. Gordon was re-elected commander-in-chief, and Houston, Texas, was selected as the next meeting place.

—Gov. N. S. Berry, aged 98, is dead at Concord, N. H.

Four Big Successes. Having the needed merit to make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver Stomach and Kidneys. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

HUSTONVILLE.

—There is a family in town that has 21 dogs.

—As the prospects of a fair at Stanford are not flattering, what's the matter with Hustonville's trying it again?

—D. S. Carpenter has received a beautiful line of surreys and buggies which he will keep in stock from now on.

—Mrs. Prissie Drye and daughter, Miss Lizzie, are both down with severe colds. Mrs. America Bailey continues quite sick.

—Mr. H. G. Cook, of Jellico, is working at the jeweler's trade here during the miner's strike at his home, Jellico. His wife is spending the time with her mother, Mrs. Green.

—Dr. P. S. Humphrey continues to add to his residence on Danville Avenue. It is not yet known whether he will use the building for a sanitarium or as a home to take a pretty bride to.

—While walking around her farm the other day the wind blew a gate against Mrs. Jane Cloyd's right arm breaking it just above the wrist. Mrs. Cloyd is quite old and the accident will likely cause her much trouble.

—Owing to the dull times and the scant amount of telegraphing done here, the Western Union has abandoned its office, much to the regret of the citizens in general. The town might do well to offer some inducements for its continuance.

—The farmers of this section are about through planting corn. The acreage this year is nearly double that of last. By the way old corn is already scarce and but few sales are reported. Two dollars and twenty-five cents in the crib is the prevailing price.

—Lud Evans and Jim Goode returned from a day's fish in Green river, near Middleburg with a big string. One of the largest fish caught was an eight-pound channel cat. Jim Allen hearing this left at once for the spot and when last heard from was fishing in the exact place from which the big fellow was pulled.

—Miss Hopper, of Perryville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rev. W. W. Bruce, Miss Emma Hunn, of Columbia, is visiting her many friends here. Her gentleman friend, Mr. Coffey, of the same town accompanied her. J. B. Cook, of Lawrenceburg, and Tilden Cook, of Stanford, spent Sunday with the home folks. Pearson Miller, of Stanford, came with the latter and also spent the Sunday. M. C. Tanner, of McKinney, has gone to Denison, Texas, to live. Lud Evans, the drummer, spent Sunday here.

—Hustonville has been unusually gay during the past week. On Wednesday night, Mrs. Frances Cabbell entertained in honor of her son Will and his handsome bride. On Friday night the Misses Ellis gave a party to their guests Misses Glenn Bibb, Bessie Montgomery, Edie Sandidge and Manly Tyree. Quite a number of the young people were present and all had a good time. Saturday night the young people gathered at Miss Emma Morse's home and spent the evening very pleasantly, dancing, courting, &c.

—A snake 7 feet, 10 inches in length and 10 inches in circumference was killed in Mercer.

—Mr. Abram Corrant, aged 94 years a veteran of the Mexican and Indian wars, and who was twice married and was the father of 40 children, died in Jacksonville, Fla.

—There is so little call for alcoholic liquors in Burlington, Vt., that the drug stores do not find it necessary to keep more than a quart of whisky in stock. That quantity usually lasts about six months.

—When Senator Hawley spoke on Friday of the Gauls who marched into the Roman Senate and pulled the beards of its members, Senator Peffer turned pale. He's the noblest Roman of them all, so far as beard is concerned.

—The present United States Senate has lost five members during the past year. Three—Stanford, Vance and Colquitt—by death and two—Walthall and White—by resignation. Six members of the House have died and as many more resigned.

—Bowling Green gets $9,575 for liquor license. What a thirsty population it must have. To get their money back the saloons must sell, at 10 cents a drink, 95, 750 drinks, and to make a reasonable profit over the license and the cost of liquor, they should sell at least 200,000 more.—Frankfort Capital.

—Queen Victoria's descendants either occupy now or in the natural course of events bid fair to sit upon seven thrones, those of the British Empire, the German Empire, the Russian Empire, the Kingdom of Greece, the Grand Duchy of Hesse, the Duchy of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and the Duchy of Saxe-Meiningen.

—In the Superior Court of Cambridge, Mass., a suit of Mrs. Butterfield against Arthur C. Smith has been nolle prossed. Mr. Smith went into Mrs. Butterfield's flower garden after a tennis ball, and she played the garden hose on him, and then sued him for damage to her flower bed. Mr. Smith was fined $50, from which he appealed.
